I call upon all angels and archangels, and the loving energies of Lady Nada, to activate the twin flame sequence in my human DNA. I am now ready to honor love as it truly is, to release attachment, and to see the other as a reflection of my own self.

I choose to live a life filled with beauty and trust, walking peacefully alongside my beloved one.

I release and let go of any past conditioning related to attachment, need, and judgment. I embrace a higher vision, recognizing all beings as spirit. I honor the divine within you as I honor the divine within me.

I am ready to create and crystallize 5th-dimensional timelines and to live a life of joy with my twin flame. May our lives be dedicated to serving humanity in love and grace.

And so it is.

It is done. It is done. It is done.
